

Trust The Goosedale For Your Nottinghamshire Wedding Venue This Summer

If you are planning your wedding for 2012 and need the perfect venue in Nottinghamshire, then Goosedale is the number one choice this year.

When choosing a venue for your wedding and reception, you are always looking for a venue that is going to be remembered for the right reasons, both by you and your guests.

Goosedale is a historic landmark site dating back to the 17th century and is set within over 100 acres of pure tranquillity and breath-taking views of Nottinghamshire.

This privately owned outstanding venue is minutes away from the hustle and bustle of the Nottingham city centre and within easy access from junctions 26 and 27 of the M1.

Goosedale is able to cater for many guests for your big day, so whether your party is 30 people or many more, you can trust the experienced and professional team to deliver everything that you could possibly need.

Classed as one of the premier and leading venues in the Midlands, Goosedale offers a highly experienced and innovative management team who work closely with you to create tailor-made packages to suit your needs and budget.

So, if you want to book a venue that will compliment and complete your wedding day, then give the team at Goosedale a call on 0115 9635 433 or visit their website for more information.
